

R.S.: What not to wear in 1860

R.S. • from Page 1

held The much anticipated 150th Gala dinner and dance will be held at the fire company from 7-11 p.m.

Chris Opdenaker was not the only member of her family who performed at Chautauqua. Her husband, Jim, entertained the group with his portrayal of Union General William Tecumseh Sherman. Daughter Hannah, 14, appeared as, Miss Tillie Pierce, a 15-year-old resident of Gettysburg. Daughter Rachael, 10, demonstrated Civil War era children's games.

Chris Opdenaker said that the family, which hails from Quarryville and is part of a Living History Group in Pennsylvania, enjoys performing together to bring history to life.

John Houck also performed during the Chautauqua. He discussed various flags from the Confederacy.

ANDREWS: Raising funds

ANDREWS • from Page 1

easier part of the preparation.

Andrews has been working hard to raise money - sending letters to local organizations, friends and family and also using the social networking site Facebook, to solicit donations for the cause. "The hardest part of this is the $2,300 I have to raise," said Andrews.

Andrews, a sports enthusiast and a diehard New York Yankees fan since she was in middle school, will even sport a Baltimore Orioles jersey in exchange for donations. "I agreed that for the donations of more than $20, I will go out in an Orioles shirt. That's huge for me. I've made three appearances so far," she said. "I've had some donations. American Legion Post 194 gave me a very generous donation."

She's also hosting several yard sales. The next yard sale will be held Saturday, September 18 on Route 7 between North East and Charlestown. She is also selling Faith/Courage bracelets for the cause.

"I'm nervous about this (raising the needed funds). I really want to do the walk and be a part of something big. I want to give back what I can. Doing this will be a huge victory for me," she said.

To donate on Andrews' behalf online go to www.the3day.org/goto/jessandrews or contact her by email at jessandrews24@yahoo.com. The proceeds benefit Susan G. Komen for the Cure.

BAGPIPES: Pep Band

BAGPIPES • from Page 1
coach Gail Dillaway. "The coach was okay with it. Anna handled that," said Hurm.

And the team members may not have known it, but Hurm is a seasoned piper.

Mark Hurm had played the bagpipes for 30 years. He is often called on to play at weddings, funerals, graduation ware rugby team by piping at their games.

He isn't sure if he'll play again at a hockey game, but says he enjoyed the experience.

"We won. I don't know (if we'll play there again). We'll see what the girls say," added Hurm.

Chris Opdenaker showed off appropriate attire for the 1860s during the Chautauqua held on Saturday. Members of the Opdenaker family provided different performances. The event was part of the Rising Sun 150th Celebration.